

Free Clinic of Powhatan Impact Report

Thank you!

Because of you, every number tells a story.

In 2025, patients came to the Free Clinic expecting basic care and left feeling truly supported through preventive treatment, fewer ER visits, and access to care many people take for granted. The impact of clinical care is often measured in numbers, but behind each one is a person whose life was changed because you chose to give.

He came to us for a toothache.
But then we saw the whole person.

What began as a regular dental visit for an elderly patient revealed his deeper needs. With your support, our team connected him to mental health care, helped him navigate our complex health system, and supported him as his confidence and stability grew.

This kind of whole-person care is possible because donors like you make it happen.

Thank you for helping us walk alongside them as they regain their health and well-being.
